

SPORTING EXTRA.

PRICE ONE CENT.

The EVENING EDITION

NEW YORK, THURSDAY, MARCH 16, 1883.

SPORTING EXTRA.

PRICE ONE CENT.

TAMMANY'S SOCIAL CIRCLES--SEE SUNDAY'S WORLD.

EXTRA.

HARRIS MUST DIE.

Recorder Smyth
Destroys His Last Hope.

NO NEW TRIAL.

Decision Rendered Today in the Court of General Sessions.

TO BE RESENTENCED.

The Doomed Man's Only
Chance Now Lies in Executive Clemency.

HARRIS LEARNS HIS FATE

The Grim Recorder's Words
Excited Great Public Interest in This City.

Carey W. Harris is doomed to die. Recorder Smyth today filed his decision denying the motion of Harris's counsels for a new trial on the ground of newly discovered evidence.

The decision of the Recorder is very long, covering every most point of the case. It is over two pages of type-written legal copy and would fill out entire more than "The Evening World."

There is no appeal from this decision, and as far as the courts are concerned Harris's doom is sealed.

Harris's sole hope now for escape from the death chisel is that the Governor may exercise clemency and commute the sentence to imprisonment for life.

The points of the Recorder that his decision would be decided with clerks Carroll, the Court of General Sessions, today took a strong position for the two brownstone courthouses.

Mr. Carroll and Deputy Clerk Welsh were seen by the Recorder smut at noon. They were dolted with him for over an hour, and after the session returned to the Clerks' office with the decision, which Mr. Welsh read to the entire assembly.

At the same time, Mrs. for the firm of Healy & in model conduct for Harris, waited with nervous nervousness for the announcement of the decision. It was then called to the telephone in the Clerks' office, once again from the law offices in Central Street, in response to the repeated and mysterious demands of the disgruntled mother of Carey Harris for information.

Mr. Carroll and Deputy Clerk Welsh were seen by the Recorder smut at noon. They were dolted with him for over an hour, and after the session returned to the Clerks' office with the decision, which Mr. Welsh read to the entire assembly.

In this respect, Mrs. for the firm of Healy & in model conduct for Harris, waited with nervous nervousness for the announcement of the decision. It was then called to the telephone in the Clerks' office, once again from the law offices in Central Street, in response to the repeated and mysterious demands of the disgruntled mother of Carey Harris for information.

The Recorder's Words. Infully denouncing the motion the Recorder uses these terms:

A careful examination of all the facts and circumstances established upon the trial of this case, as well as of the additional facts which have been presented upon the trial, by way of newly discovered evidence, leads me to the conclusion that if the defendant had produced the so-called newly discovered evidence or a sum of such evidence would have had fully an influence upon the trial, it would not have changed the verdict which was rendered against him.

This notion therefore, must be denied. The Recorder reflected length the facts of the case, the arrest, conviction and sentence of both of Carey Harris; that a post to the Court of Appeals, and its decision affirming the conviction of Harris; the appearance of William H. Howland, the trial judge, before the Recorder, asking for a new trial and a new trial on the ground of newly discovered evidence that when Mrs. Harris, the victim of Carey Harris's nefarious intent, was an habitual drunkard, and might have died by her hand.

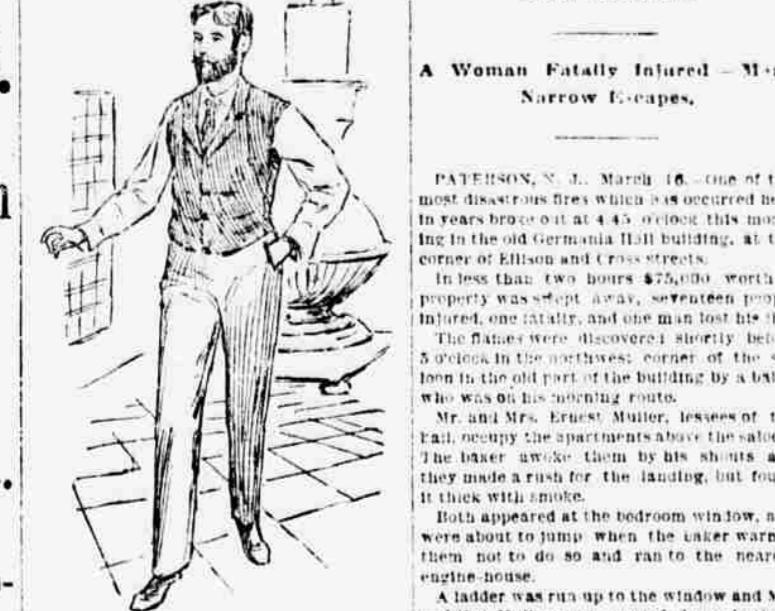

The quoted Judge Gray's remarks in an effort, devolved on the apportion of this case to the Court of Appeals.

In determining this motion I must only regard the facts stated in the moving paper, and the papers read in opposition to the motion, but I must also take into consideration the testimony and proceedings had and taken upon the trial, and the results arrived upon the appeal from the judgment against this defendant."

Analyzing the New Evidence.

continuing, Recorder Smyth said: "In the first place, I propose to examine the so-called evidence as the same is presented in the affidavits now before me.

ONE DEAD--17 HURT. AT ODDS OF 50 TO 1.

Firemen Buried Beneath Falling Walls in Paterson.

Turn Hall Burned and the Loss Is About $75,000.

A Woman Fatally Injured—Many Narrow Escapes.

PATERSON, N. J., March 16.—One of the most disastrous fires which has occurred here in years broke out at 4:45 o'clock this morning in the old Germania Hall building, at the corner of Ellison and Cross streets.

The fire was discovered shortly before 5 o'clock in the northeast corner of the second floor of the building by a baker who was on his morning route.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Muller, lessors of the hall, occupy the apartments above the saloon. The bakers awoke them by their shouts and they made a rush for the landing, but found it thick with smoke.

Both appeared at the bedroom window, and were about to jump when the baker warned them not to do so and ran to the nearest engine-house.

A ladder was run up to the window and Mr. and Mrs. Muller were carried down in their night clothes by firemen.

Henry Weber, the bartender of the saloon in the Germania Building, where the fire originated, was asleep in his room on the top floor. He was awakened by the smoke pouring into his room and was nearly suffocated by the time he had made his way to the roof. He jumped from the second story of one of the cross-street tenements and sustained several bruises.

The flames spread with wonderful rapidity through the new hall, and in half an hour it was a sheet of flame.

At 5:30 o'clock the north wall fell in, burying a number of victims. Capt. Cook, of engine No. 5, crawled through a hole under what was left of the stairway, and Fireman John Laird followed him. Fireman Stannard was found in the gutter covered with bricks.

All are severely injured. They were taken to the hospital. The physicians think they will recover.

A dozen other firemen were injured. Among them were:

Capt. William Cook, of Engine 5.

Driver William Standard.

Engineman Frank Blakely.

Driver John Laird.

Fireman Joseph Barton.

Fireman Frank George.

Fireman Henry Snyder.

Fireman Thomas Hallowell.

Fireman Jacob Snyder.

Fireman John Messenger.

Fireman Frank Giese.

A block of frame tenement-houses extending along Cross street for a distance of 150 feet was completely gutted by the flames.

The tenants barely escaped with their lives. Mrs. Isabel Murr, who lived on the top floor of one of the tenements, escaped to the street in her nightclothes, only to fall on the icy pavement, breaking her back. She is at the General Hospital in a precarious condition.

Ex-Policeman Kline overcame fell from the wagon and was badly hurt.

Mr. Oberbeck was removed to his home, where it was found that his back was broken. Every effort was made by the physicians to save him, but he died a few moments after being placed on his bed.

At noon all the injured persons were reported as doing well except Mrs. Murr, who will probably die.

Turn Master Louis Ursinger saved three valuable horses belonging to the Turn Hall, but lost his life in doing so. He attempted to save part of the valuable harness, but was dragged from his perch position by firemen.

The talent were in great feather in the third race, for Mary S. the filly that carried all the smart money, ended in an easy winner after getting all the best of the start.

Fireman John Messenger, of the 1st East Eighty-ninth street, won the second race.

Fireman Jacob Snyder.

Fireman Frank Giese.

The talent were in great feather in the third race, for Mary S. the filly that carried all the smart money, ended in an easy winner after getting all the best of the start.

Fireman John Messenger, of the 1st East Eighty-ninth street, won the second race.

Fireman Jacob Snyder.

Fireman Frank Giese.

The talent were in great feather in the third race, for Mary S. the filly that carried all the smart money, ended in an easy winner after getting all the best of the start.

Fireman John Messenger, of the 1st East Eighty-ninth street, won the second race.

Fireman Jacob Snyder.

Fireman Frank Giese.

The talent were in great feather in the third race, for Mary S. the filly that carried all the smart money, ended in an easy winner after getting all the best of the start.

Fireman John Messenger, of the 1st East Eighty-ninth street, won the second race.

Fireman Jacob Snyder.

Fireman Frank Giese.

The talent were in great feather in the third race, for Mary S. the filly that carried all the smart money, ended in an easy winner after getting all the best of the start.

Fireman John Messenger, of the 1st East Eighty-ninth street, won the second race.

Fireman Jacob Snyder.

Fireman Frank Giese.

The talent were in great feather in the third race, for Mary S. the filly that carried all the smart money, ended in an easy winner after getting all the best of the start.

Fireman John Messenger, of the 1st East Eighty-ninth street, won the second race.

Fireman Jacob Snyder.

Fireman Frank Giese.

The talent were in great feather in the third race, for Mary S. the filly that carried all the smart money, ended in an easy winner after getting all the best of the start.

Fireman John Messenger, of the 1st East Eighty-ninth street, won the second race.

Fireman Jacob Snyder.

Fireman Frank Giese.

The talent were in great feather in the third race, for Mary S. the filly that carried all the smart money, ended in an easy winner after getting all the best of the start.

Fireman John Messenger, of the 1st East Eighty-ninth street, won the second race.

Fireman Jacob Snyder.

Fireman Frank Giese.

The talent were in great feather in the third race, for Mary S. the filly that carried all the smart money, ended in an easy winner after getting all the best of the start.

Fireman John Messenger, of the 1st East Eighty-ninth street, won the second race.

Fireman Jacob Snyder.

Fireman Frank Giese.

The talent were in great feather in the third race, for Mary S. the filly that carried all the smart money, ended in an easy winner after getting all the best of the start.

Fireman John Messenger, of the 1st East Eighty-ninth street, won the second race.

Fireman Jacob Snyder.

Fireman Frank Giese.

The talent were in great feather in the third race, for Mary S. the filly that carried all the smart money, ended in an easy winner after getting all the best of the start.

Fireman John Messenger, of the 1st East Eighty-ninth street, won the second race.

Fireman Jacob Snyder.

Fireman Frank Giese.

The talent were in great feather in the third race, for Mary S. the filly that carried all the smart money, ended in an easy winner after getting all the best of the start.

Fireman John Messenger, of the 1st East Eighty-ninth street, won the second race.

Fireman Jacob Snyder.

Fireman Frank Giese.

The talent were in great feather in the third race, for Mary S. the filly that carried all the smart money, ended in an easy winner after getting all the best of the start.

Fireman John Messenger, of the 1st East Eighty-ninth street, won the second race.

Fireman Jacob Snyder.

Fireman Frank Giese.

The talent were in great feather in the third race, for Mary S. the filly that carried all the smart money, ended in an easy winner after getting all the best of the start.

Fireman John Messenger, of the 1st East Eighty-ninth street, won the second race.

Fireman Jacob Snyder.

Fireman Frank Giese.

The talent were in great feather in the third race, for Mary S. the filly that carried all the smart money, ended in an easy winner after getting all the best of the start.

Fireman John Messenger, of the 1st East Eighty-ninth street, won the second race.

Fireman Jacob Snyder.

Fireman Frank Giese.

The talent were in great feather in the third race, for Mary S. the filly that carried all the smart money, ended in an easy winner after getting all the best of the start.

Fireman John Messenger, of the 1st East Eighty-ninth street, won the second race.

Fireman Jacob Snyder.

Fireman Frank Giese.

The talent were in great feather in the third race, for Mary S. the filly that carried all the smart money, ended in an easy winner after getting all the best of the start.

Fireman John Messenger, of the 1st East Eighty-ninth street, won the second race.

Fireman Jacob Snyder.

Fireman Frank Giese.

The talent were in great feather in the third race, for Mary S. the filly that carried all the smart money, ended in an easy winner after getting all the best of the start.

Fireman John Messenger, of the 1st East Eighty-ninth street, won the second race.

Fireman Jacob Snyder.

Fireman Frank Giese.

The talent were in great feather in the third race, for Mary S. the filly that carried all the smart money, ended in an easy winner after getting all the best of the start.

Fireman John Messenger, of the 1st East Eighty-ninth street, won the second race.

Fireman Jacob Snyder.

Fireman Frank Giese.

The talent were in great feather in the third race, for Mary S. the filly that carried all the smart money, ended in an easy winner after getting all the best of the start.